Mini-Santa with Fred Carter

This Saturday Fred Carter will teach carving a miniature Santa with a walking stick. The class will require the usual assortment of knives and carving tools. Fred will provide the blanks.

Note: If you have a class you would like to teach, we still have openings for class instructors in March, April, and October. The sign-up sheet will be available at the meeting.

Hello,

I work for The Woodlands Township Parks and Recreation Department. Each spring we hold our annual Arts in the Park event.

We are trying to find new, creative ways to showcase different art forms in our Unfortunately, several people in the Houston Woodcarvers Club have notified the Coastal Bend Woodcarvers club to inform us that a rumor is floating saying our club is dissolving. They claim, Barb, that this is why you are having a show.

Last week I forwarded some information to the membership about a new one-day show to be held in Rockport on March 10. Since the Coastal Bend show fell victim to Harvey this spring, I felt that some of you might be looking for an alternate venue for an opportunity to display and/or sell your work.

This morning I was copied on an email from the secretary of the Coastal Bend club to the sponsor of that show:

To:
'yellowrosegallery@twc.com', 'lancerath@yahoo.com'

We are VERY MUCH ALIVE AND ARE CURRENTLY SEEKING FUNDING FOR OUR ANNUAL 2019 SHOW AND CLASSES.

Yes, we had to cancel our 2018 show and classes due to hurricane Harvey, but our club is as strong as ever.

PLEASE SQUELCH THESE RUMORS IMMEDIATELY.

Thank you,

Glenda Taber-sec--tra
Coastal Bend Woodcarvers Club

I had a conversation with Glenda and others at the Rio Grande Valley show during which there was speculation about the uncertain future of the Aransas Pass event. In the announcement on the Rockport show, I stated "With the possible demise of the Coastal Bend event in Aransas Pass, growth of this into a full-fledged carving show would give us a new venue for the exhibit of our work".

Apparently, the word underlined above was passed over by some, resulting in the assumption that the Coastal Bend organization was being dissolved, and that erroneous information was passed around. I thought that I was being clear, but obviously I was not clear enough. THE COASTAL BEND WOODCARVERS ARE ALIVE AND WELL, AND HOPEFULLY THEIR SHOW WILL RETURN IN 2019 AND BEYOND.

community. I was wondering if you had any contacts with area wood carvers who may be interested in doing a wood carving demonstration at our event.

If so, they can contact me directly and I can discuss more details including what they need to do a 'performance'

The event is located at Rob Fleming Park. Saturday, March 10 from 2-6pm.

If any of your club members are interested in selling their hand carved items, or if a group wants a booth to at the event, an application is available online at

2018 Show Rules

NOTE: Carving Competition Entry Registration and display is Saturday March 10, 2018 from 7:30 am to 10:00 am. No entries will be accepted after 10:00 am. Show Judging begins Saturday 11 am.

Show Rules

1. Show entrants must have an Exhibit Table to enter the Show Competition. Application must be made for all tables.
2. All carvings entered competition, must be primarily wood, no reproductions or castings allowed.
3. Entries must be carved and finished by the person entering the carving.
4. All entries must have been carved within the last two years.
5. Once carvings are entered into competition, they will remain in the judging area.
6. After judging, winning carvings will be staged and displayed by the staff for viewing by the public. When the show closes the carvings may be picked up by Exhibitors.
7. Carving found to be objectionable (in any manner ... e.g. presentation, wording, bad taste, erotic, etc.) will be removed from competition. This applies to carving entries and items on exhibit tables.
8. Yellow Rose Gallery, Rock Bottom Park & Pub or its employees are not responsible for any loss, damage or injury to any carving or person occurring during Competition Show.
9. Submission of a Competition Entry Form is an agreement to the Show Rules.

Individual Exhibit Tables

- a. Purchased for $30.00 each table.
- b. $5.00 entry fee for each carving entered, with a minim of 3 entries are needed for Judging, but not to exceed 6 entries.
- c. Table display must be finished carvings or woodturnings.
- d. No add on tables will be allowed.
- e. Tables must be covered on all four sides by the exhibitor.
- f. Tables and/or exhibits are not to be dismantled before the closing time posted.
(NO EXCEPTIONS).
- h. If selling your art, you must give a copy of Sales Tax Certificate Yellow Rose Gallery.

Judging will consider the following in determining the Show Winners:

1. Creativity: Originality, true to life if applicable, proportions, anatomy, perspective.
2. Workmanship: Carving techniques, difficulty of carving, variety of techniques applied such as burning, detailing, and painting. If carving consists of more than one piece, assembly perfection will also be considered.
3. Detail: Feathers, hair, folds in clothing, skin wrinkles, etc.
4. Quality of Finish: Sanding, polishing, painting, etc.
5. Final Representation: Impact of carving, selection of base and its detail, habitat if any, decorative value, harmony of the carving as a whole are elements to be considered.
6. Presentation (overall look of display)
