Vice President's Message

Joe Perkins will be the instructor for the August carving class. He will be teaching the anticipated Painted Bottle Popper. The class will start gathering at 9 am.

Fred Carter is on deck to teach a flat plane country folk carving at the September meeting and Lance Rath will teach a miniature Green Heron at the November meeting. Our thanks are extended to Fred Childers for teaching the fan carving last month.

This is a good time to remind members if you haven't paid your 2019 dues fill out the form that can be found on the sign-in table and put the form along with the dues in the membership box. In the event you aren't sure if you've paid 2019 dues, check the dues section on the meeting sign-in sheet. If you have questions regarding the dues, ask Shen Liang, our treasurer.

Here are a couple of reminders related to the HAWC 47th Annual Show, Sale and Competition scheduled for October 19 at Faith Lutheran Church, 4600 Bellaire Blvd. First, fill out your registration forms for the show and carving classes. Review and complete the forms that can be found with the show packet and submit your forms and fees promptly. This will help volunteers make key planning decisions that are important to a successful show.

Orlando Villarreal, Wanda Reichert and Dallas Deege will teach this year's carving classes, October 16, 17 and 18 preceding the show. For additional information, check the "class" section of your show packet.

As for the second reminder, bring your donations for the annual show raffle to the August meeting. Thanks to your donations, last year's raffle was extremely successful. Also, support our show sponsors—Woodcraft North and South, Rockler's and Houston Hardwoods.
