

HOUSTON AREA WOODCARVERS

OUR MARCH, 2020 MEETING IS CANCELLED

President's Message

MARCH MEETING CANCELLED

After getting off to a good start at the HAWC January and February meetings, we have hit a snag for the March meeting.

As a result of an extensive member survey, it was determined the March meeting should be canceled due to the unknown factors of the Coronavirus (COVID-19). In addition, it was later discovered Harris County closed the Bayland Community Center at the close of business Friday, March 13, along with the other county community centers, until March 31.

At this date, the April meeting remains on the schedule for the third Saturday of the month. Lorraine Lewis suggested we not sit idle during the time between meetings. She recommends carving an Easter theme project, such as an Easter egg, that can be entered into a competition contest at the April meeting. So get your tools out and start carving.

We will shift the March activities to the April meeting. That means Mike Crosson will be the April instructor teaching Scallop Shells. You may recall he was working on the project at the February meeting. Ronnie Boston will continue teaching an intermediate class each month. The monthly project will be a different Christmas ornament.
